2. (1) This section has effect where the Attorney General receives from the government of, or other authority in, a country or territory outside the Virgin islands -

- (a) a summons or other process requiring a person to appear as defendant or attend as a witness in criminal proceedings in that country or territory; or
- (b) a document issued by a court exercising criminal jurisdiction in that country or territory and recording a decision of the court made in the exercise of that jurisdiction, together with a request for it to be served on a person in the Virgin Islands.

(2) The Attorney General may cause the process or document to be served by post or, if the request is for personal service, direct the Commissioner of Police to cause it to be personally served on him.

(3) Service by virtue of this section of any such process as is mentioned in subsection (1) (a) shall not impose any obligation under the law of the Virgin Islands to comply with it.

(4) Any such process served by virtue of this section shall be accompanied by a notice -

- (a) stating the effect of subsection (3);
- (b) indicating that the person on whom it is served may wish to seek advice as to the possible consequences of his failing to comply with the process under the law of the country or territory where it was issued; and
- (c) indicating that under that law he may not, as a witness, be accorded the same rights and privileges as would be accorded to him in criminal proceedings in the Virgin Islands.

(5) Where the Commissioner of Police is directed under this section to cause any process or document to be served he shall after it has been served forthwith inform in writing the Attorney General when and how it was served and, if possible, furnish him with a receipt signed by the person on whom it was served; and if the Commissioner of Police has been unable to cause the process or document to be served he shall forthwith inform the Attorney General of that fact and of the reason.

3. (1) Process of the following descriptions, that is to say -

- (a) a summons requiring a person charged with an offence to appear before a court in the Virgin Islands; and
- (b) a summons or order requiring a person to attend before a court in the Virgin Islands for the purpose of giving evidence in criminal proceedings,

(2) Service of any process outside the Virgin Islands by virtue of this section shall not impose any obligation under the law of any part of the Virgin Islands to comply with it and accordingly failure to do so shall not constitute contempt of any court or be a ground for issuing a warrant to secure the attendance of the person in question or for imposing any penalty.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to the service of any process (with usual consequences for non-compliance) on the person in question if subsequently effected in the Virgin Islands.

Mutual provision of evidence

- (a) the request is from a country or territory which is a member of the Commonwealth or is made pursuant to a treaty to which the United Kingdom is a party, and such treaty has been made applicable to the Virgin Islands; or
- (b) he is satisfied that the conduct constituting the offence would constitute an offence of the same or a similar nature if it had occurred in the Virgin Islands.

(4) For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the matters mentioned in subsections (2) (a) and (b) the Governor shall regard as conclusive a certificate issued by such authority in the country or territory in question as appears to him to be appropriate.
